

SOME OF THE TYPES OF VOLUNTEER ROLES AVAILABLE

WELFARE

Community Worker, Driver, Driving Tutor,
Kitchen hand/Cook, Social Support,
Administration, Telephone Caller

SPORT & RECREATION

Riding for the Disabled, Guides & Scouts,
Sporting Clubs, Events, Activity Programs

EDUCATION

Play Group Assistant, Homework Club,
Literacy/Numeracy Tutor, Computer
Tutoring.

HEALTH

Visiting, receptionist, Arts & Crafts, Office
Assistant, Research Assistant, Cosmetic
Care, helping those with a disability.

ENVIRONMENT

Gardener, Conservation Volunteer,
Landcare

CULTURE, ART & HISTORY

Tour Guides, Publicity Officer

Volunteering?
I CAN DO THAT.

Volunteer Now Find out How

Call in or contact us to find out what 's new in volunteering.

We can keep you updated on new work roles as well as

- Information & Advice
- Education & Training
- Corporate Volunteering
- Community Services

We are situated at
96 Russell Street, Bathurst 2795
PO Box 1469, Bathurst 2795
Ph: (02) 6332 4866
Fax: (02) 6332 1244
Email: lisa@binc.org.au
volprograms@binc.org.au

Office hours 9am to 4.30pm
Monday to Friday

Volunteering Bathurst values your feedback. If you have comments or complaints, please contact the Centre Coordinator who will address your concerns according to the policies of Volunteering Bathurst.. Your complaint will be addressed in a timely and confidential manner

Volunteering Bathurst

Empowering Volunteers
&
Community Organisations

www.binc.org.au

FAQs

What do we Do?

Volunteering Bathurst is a program of the Bathurst Information & Neighbourhood Centre Inc, which is a not for profit organisation. We have many positions available with other community, non profit organisations. We interview volunteers, and carefully match their passions and skills with these organisations, enabling them to utilise and improve current abilities, and also have the opportunity to gain new skills.

Who are the Volunteers?

There are currently over one million volunteers in NSW alone. These people are various nationalities, both employed and unemployed, male and female, young and old, teachers and students.

So what are you waiting for?

Can I Volunteer?

Volunteering is for everyone. Whether it is using your current skills, wanting to try out a position, learning new skills, or returning to work after absence or injury, there is a position

What are the Benefits?

Benefits include learning new skills and utilising current skills, meeting people, achieving personal satisfaction, increasing self confidence and personal skills, becoming actively involved in and contributing to the community and of course, helping others.

How Much Of My Time Is Required?

This is entirely up to you. You can give as little or as much time as you want. Any time you put in is greatly appreciated and helping others also enriches your life.

How Do I Volunteer?

Just contact Volunteering Bathurst and we will organize an appointment or you to come in and discuss the prospects that you are interested in.

VOLUNTEER ENTERTAINERS DIRECTORY

Do you play an instrument, sing, dance, mime or entertain in any way?

IF YOU DO WE NEED YOU!!!!

Think about becoming an entertainer listed in our "Voluntary Entertainers Directory"

SPECIAL EVENTS REGISTER

Event organisations need volunteers to help plan and run festivals, cultural and sporting events. Volunteers have the opportunity to gain experience in event management, meet new people and watch the events firsthand. Please contact Volunteering Bathurst if you wish to be included in our Special Events Register, or to recruit Volunteers for your event.

OUTREACH

Interviews for volunteering are also held at

ORANGE	Glenroi Access Centre 8 Oxley Place Orange 04447 185 088
PARKES	Information & Neighbourhood Centre 80-82 Currajong St, Parkes 02 6862 6213
COWRA	Information & Neighbourhood Centre 15 Vaux street, Cowra 02 6342 4900

